

St Scholastica

St. Scholastica Parish was established in 1928 as a child parish from St. Mary's of Redford. It was founded by Benedictines under the direction of Fr. Philip Bartocetti, OSB. Currently, five priests, nine seminarians, and two transitional deacons from the Companions of the Cross reside at the rectory. Among them, Fr. Michael Scherrey, CC, is the current pastor.

The mission of St. Scholastica Parish is to ensure that in the community there is a viable place for Catholic worship and a channel through which to serve. To provide continuing Christian formation for adults and an excellent education for youth. To bring into the Church those who seek Christ or the renewal of their faith and to provide for the material needs of our community as model of gospel values.
